

The extension of Land and building tax payment period

To ease the economic effect of Covid-19 outbreaks, on 23 June 2022, the Ministry of Interior (“MOI”) announced that the collection on land and building tax would be extended for another 3 months without subject to the fine, from the deadline in April 2022 extended to July 2022 for the taxpayers.

In addition, the extended period would also benefit for the land and building tax installment payments as follows:

The first installment: the deadline in April 2022 extended to July 2022;

The second installment: the deadline in May 2022 extended to August 2022; and

The last installment: the deadline in June 2022 extended to September 2022.
